

Safety Information for overseas traveling

- The Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Japan has issued overseas travel safety advisories for the following ports:
A level 1 travel warning "Exercise sufficient caution": Toamasina, Port Elizabeth, Cape Town, Walvis Bay, Rio de Janeiro, Montevideo, Buenos Aires, Valparaiso, Easter Island.
Japan Grace conducts this travel after having confirmed the safety of the ports visited through local travel agencies, partners, government bodies, and shipping agencies.
- The above information is issued by the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Japan. Individuals should also confirm themselves information regarding to safety and disease in the overseas areas to be visited.

Other Information

- The remaining validity of your passport should be at least six months after the date of your final disembarkation.
- Transportation costs from your home to the port of embarkation and from your port of disembarkation to your home are not included in the travel fee.
- The voyage schedule may be subject to change owing to circumstances such as weather and local conditions.
- Some ports of call will be visited using tender boats. In this case, the ship will anchor off the coastline, and passengers will be brought to shore using tender boats. In case of bad weather conditions, these tender boat operations may be canceled.
- The Captain and the Ship Company have the authority to change the itinerary and course of the ship if deemed necessary. Passenger safety is of paramount importance, therefore any unforeseen acts of providence, deterioration of political situations or orders from local authorities will be taken into account, and the itinerary or schedule may be changed due to these factors. Japan Grace Co., Ltd. will do its utmost to inform passengers as early as possible of any changes made. In case of emergency, passengers may be notified after changes have been made.
- Please kindly note that there will be no refunds made to passengers for changes made as a result of the above-mentioned circumstances.
- Those who embark in the port of Yokohama cannot disembark in the port of Kobe; those who embark in Kobe cannot disembark in Yokohama.
- Some of the information and photos included in this brochure relates to optional tours that you can enjoy during the cruise (not included in the cruise fare).
- The photos in this brochure are meant to provide an image of the Peace Boat Cruise. This brochure also includes photos taken on other passenger ships that were used in the past.
- An Overland Tour is a tour that temporarily disembarks from the ship at a port of call and rejoins the ship at a different port of call.

Summary of Terms and Conditions

NOTE: The following is a translation and summary of the original Japanese document. If a conflict in meaning between this document and the original shall arise, the following terms and conditions stipulate the business terms and the account of the transaction pursuant to Japanese travel agency law article 12, clause 4 and article 12, clause 5. The following represents part of the terms and conditions of the contractual writing of this Engagement.

A) CONDITIONAL ENGAGEMENT OF PARTICIPATION

The travel is coordinated by the Peace Boat office, and is planned and conducted by Japan Grace Co., Ltd. (hereinafter referred to as the 'Company') Those participating in this travel will be agreeing to a conditional engagement to participate in a travel program on sale to the general public through promotional means (hereinafter referred to as 'Travel Contract') with the Company.
